LOCKDOWN UPDATE

Community Spirit Flourishing

We're pleased to be able to update you with some of the ways our community is supporting its residents. To keep up to date please follow us on FaceBook or check our website.

The VILLAGE SHOP is fully stocked and supporting the community with deliveries for those who are self-isolating. The shop is open from 9.30am each morning. Please ring between 9.30-5.00 for a next day delivery. Contact Nikkie Catmore 01598 710410.

A PRESCRIPTION collection and delivery is available for those self isolating, operating for Barnstaple pharmacies including Bear Street and Litchdon Medical Centre. Contact Sue Maxfield 01598 710051

FOODBANK donations are still possible at the Village Stores, or we can arrange to collect from you. If you can't afford food, Rosie is able to issue e-vouchers, or call 0808 2082138 (freephone). We can collect and deliver food parcels from the foodbank if required. Contact Rosie Austin 01598 711962.

GUARDIAN ANGELS are locally based supporters looking out for their neighbours and able to feed back to us any specific individual needs that residents may have.

VOLUNTEERS all these activities above are supported by local volunteers, if you would also like to join the team, your mileage will be paid! Contact Sue Maxfield 01598 710051

BUSINESS SUPPORT for grants and advice is available from North Devon Council, see their business support web page or contact Councillor Malcom Prowse on knightacott@gmail.com
